The China Business 2006 initiative will offer a series of forums outside of Washington, DC that pair U.S. business executives, legal experts, academics, and government officials who have on-the-ground business experience in China with local private sector representatives and community officials for discussions on small and medium-size (SME) business opportunities in the China market. The goal of the initiative is to support closer U.S.-China commercial ties and highlight export and investment opportunities in China for U.S. companies.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce, in partnership with the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce and the Nebraska State Chamber of Commerce, are hosting a forum featuring His Excellency Zhou Wenzhong, Chinese Ambassador to the U.S. This forum, sponsored by AIG WorldSource, will include local business representatives sharing their success stories of doing business with China as well as provide hands-on information on topics including due diligence, finding suitable partners, licensing, sales and marketing, distribution and trading, customs clearance, and regulatory issues.

To register, visit www.omahachamber.org. Due to limited seating, please register no later than May 29th.
